CALL TO WORSHIP

Thanks be to God, our Rock and our Redeemer;

for God has been our dwelling place in all generations.

Today as we gather, we give thanks for the communion of saints,

all the faithful and beloved who have gone before us.

Through time and beyond time, with generations past and those to come,

we all belong in one God, one source of life, one source of love.

*HYMN

Forward Through the Ages

Pilgrim (red), 383

Forward through the ages, in unbroken line,

Move the faithful spirits at the call divine.

Gifts in different measure, hearts of one accord,

Manifold the service, one the sure reward;

Forward through the ages, in unbroken line,

Move the faithful spirits at the call divine.

Wider grows the kingdom, reign of love and light;

For it we must labor, 'til our faith is sight.

Prophets have proclaimed it, martyrs testified,

Poets sung its glory, heroes for it died.

Forward through the ages, in unbroken line,

Move the faithful spirits at the call divine.

*Not alone we conquer, not alone we fall;
In each loss of triumph, lose or triumph all.
Bound by God's far purpose in one living whole,
Move we on together to the shining goal.
Forward through the ages, in unbroken line,
Move the faithful spirits at the call divine.*

GATHERING PRAYER & THE LORD'S PRAYER

Holy One, the beginning and the end of all things, we give thanks as we gather here
for our place in a sacred story and a living history.
We listen now for the Word you will speak,
as generations before us have listened.
We hope in the dawning of your realm,
as generations before us have hoped.
May your Spirit awaken us now,
that with the whole communion of saints
we might know ourselves as your people, made for lives of love.

This we ask in Christ's name and spirit, as we also say together:

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

LITANY OF REMEMBRANCE

Jewish liturgy, adapted

Remembering departed loved ones, including those from our congregation who have passed on in the last year:

John Edward Cannon III, Barbara Lowell, Carole Fisher

In the rising of the sun and its going down,

we remember them.

In the blowing of the wind and in the chill of winter,

we remember them.

In the opening of the buds and in the rebirth of spring,

we remember them.

In the blueness of the skies and in the warmth of summer,

we remember them.

In the rustling of the leaves and in the beauty of autumn,

we remember them.

In the beginning of the year and when it ends,

we remember them.

When we are weary and in need of strength,

we remember them.

When we are lost and sick of heart,

we remember them.

When we have joys and celebrations we yearn to share,

we remember them.

So long as we live, they too shall live, for they are part of us.

And in the heart of God, they live eternally.

COME HIKE WITH US! -Sunday, November 7th after church. We invite you on a family hike on the Mary Conklin trail up on Indian Hill, just a few minutes from the church. The trail does not have a lot of elevation and we will walk about two miles, noticing the beauty of the woods this time of year. Wear sturdy shoes, dress in layers and bring a hat and water. We will meet after church and carpool to the parking area off Indian Hill Road. Call Hollace Bristol with questions (928) 853-0311 or email hlbristol@msn.com. Depending on the participation we may make hiking a regular church activity. Rain date: Sunday, November 14th.

THE ROAMING SCRIP LADY! - Scrip gift cards are still available for immediate purchase or order every week. Since we are not having a traditional coffee hour for the time being, there will not be a table set up on Sundays. Just look for Casey in church or reach out via phone (860-693-0134) or email (c.levine@comcast.net) to place an order. Thanks for your support!
